BROKERS ID NOTICE

In an effort to apply security measures required of a modern customs and to promote a safe and comfortable work environment, the Management of the Customs and Excise Department will be introducing new building security guidelines.

As such we are hereby soliciting your cooperation in ensuring that all your employees who do business with Customs are provided with an official Brokers' ID from your company, which must always be displayed when doing business at Customs House.

We are aware that this may take some time and would give you up to the 15th November, 2019 to make the necessary arrangements.

You are invited to attend or to send a representative to a short briefing session to answer any queries you may have and receive an update on our Risk Management program. Please see attached list for sessions which will take place from October 22 – 24 in Batches, at the Queens II office.

All Brokers are kindly asked to pick up an official letter at the Customs and Excise Department.

Grateful for your cooperation.

Selwyn Da Silva (Mr.)
Comptroller Customs and Excise (Ag.)
